

INS-301 COMPARISON MEMO

Dennis's new agency guide against the shipped package | HGF Management Company | July 11, 2026

July 11, 2026. Dennis's new Google Doc, "INS-301 Participating Public Agency Guide," against the shipped package. Bullet format per the builder's standard.

What was reviewed

- Founder's Google Doc: INS-301 Participating Public Agency Guide (City, County, Joint Powers Authority)
- Created July 11; under active edit at the time of review
- Outline stage: most chapters are headers and topic lists
- Chapter 6, legal and financing structure, is substantially drafted

Library fit

- The INS-3xx slot was open; INS-301 is now registered as the participant-guide series
- Registered and compared only; no content adopted, per the quarantine discipline
- Source of truth remains the founder's Google Doc

Where it confirms the package

- One master district per agency, with a recorded future annexation area
- Voluntary per-project annexations approved by the council
- Standardized rate-and-method; special tax lien; owner prepayment right
- SCIP and BOLD credited by name; INSITE positioned for the 2-to-50-lot segment they are not built around
- No general fund obligation; limited agency liability
- County-roll annual levy, delinquency administration, continuing disclosure
- Matches the whitepaper, the primer, the city brief, and manuals INS-401 and INS-501

Delta one: school fees (now Build Log question 9)

- Section 6.5 lists school fees as eligible financing costs
- Chapter 3 adds a "Benefits to School Districts" section
- The standing launch policy says the opposite: school fees are excluded at launch, noted on every surface, 55 audited instances
- The founder's one-line answer decides which stands

Delta two: capital structure (now Build Log question 10)

- Chapter 6.6 describes a revolving warehouse credit facility making per-project advances
- With optional pooled tax-exempt bond refinancing after portfolio stabilization
- The shipped external materials say: privately placed, tax-secured notes, one note per project
- Could be one structure described at two altitudes, or an evolution
- The whitepaper, capital brief, and website hero all inherit the answer

Minor scope growth

- Eligible costs in 6.5 broaden beyond impact fees to public improvements, capitalized interest, and reserves
- Confirm before external documents widen their promises

Name context

- The guide is drafted under the INSITE name, hours after the Class 36 knockout tripped the stop rule
- No action needed inside the outline now; a rename at adoption is a find-and-replace

Mechanical defects, for the cleanup pass when wanted

- "Table of Consents"
- "Purpose of this Guild"
- "INSTIE," twice, in 9.10

- "Benefits to Cites"
- "Counites"
- "Compparison"
- "ProgramParticipants"
- "Resolution to of Intention"
- "This This combines"
- Duplicated 2.2 and 2.3 rows
- Contents page and body disagree on Chapter 1.3, on Chapter 4's title and phase structure, and on Chapter 3's beneficiary list, where the body adds school districts and special districts the contents page lacks
- Phase page numbers repeat 18 through 20 across all three phases
